What is the Youth Council?

The West Valley City Youth Council is a group of concerned, active teens who attend schools within the City. Members of Youth Council have a strong interest in government, local issues and civic responsibilities.

The Youth Council helps to give back to the community through learning activities and service projects. Involvement fosters a greater appreciation for our government and helps to bestow many skills that will be helpful throughout life. It also is a platform to interact with peers and make new friends.

The Youth Council meet regularly to study various issues and work hard to represent the interests of the youth in West Valley City.

How do I join Youth Council?

To be eligible to participate on the West Valley City Youth Council, applicants must be a West Valley City resident of high school age (9th through 12th grades) or attending one of the schools within the City.

Members of the Youth City Council serve for a period of one (1) year from their selection date.
